

Healthy Risk Taking

Drawing by Dan Kirchoff. ©2019

How do we take chances in our lives that break us out of our daily habits, open us up to new experiences, and revitalize our thoughts and perceptions?

We come together to challenge ourselves and to create a safe environment for our fellow men. Open up, share of yourself, and take a chance!

Join us, as a community of men, for a weekend retreat of sharing and support, exploring these issues and beyond, providing one another with ideas and experiences for encouragement along the path. We welcome all self identified men with respect and good will to be part of Maine Coast Men

Consider presenting a workshop (90 min) so we can learn from each other. Hands on workshops are always popular, so if there is a cost involved, let us know so we can negotiate a budget.

Contact Tom at tombeal@gmail.com or 207-266-7656 to discuss your idea for a workshop. WE NEED YOU to make this a memorable and exciting weekend.

We'll be at Tanglewood Camp in Lincolnville, Maine
the weekend of May 3 – 5, 2019.

The camp is in a remote wooded area with hiking trails and a warm, welcoming central lodge. Some cabins have heat; others don't. You can camp if you want. Fires in designated places only!

Maine Coast Men strives to provide a safe, fulfilling, chemical-free environment which fosters individual growth and encourages honest, in-depth interaction among men. We welcome all self identified men with respect and good will.

WHO ATTENDS: Any man who wants to register is welcome; we believe in diversity and mutual acceptance. There will be men of all ages and walks of life including fathers, sons, brothers and friends. Teens (14 to 18) may attend for free accompanied by a parent or a guardian with parental permission.

SATURDAY ONLY OPTION: If you just want to check it out, come for Saturday only for $30 and stay through the variety show.

OPENING CIRCLE: Each man is encouraged to introduce himself in relation to the theme and briefly state specific issues he wants to discuss later during the weekend. The Opening Circle occurs Friday night and frequently includes ritual and pageantry.

MEALS: An awesome vegetarian fare is prepared by participants with excellent results. Meals are a highlight of the Maine Coast Men experience. Everyone is encouraged to bring a vegetarian casserole, salad or dessert to share for the Friday night potluck.

Nuts: Due to the increased prevalence of nut allergies, MCM and Tanglewood have a policy of not using nut products in the meals we provide; and we ask all participants to refrain from bringing nuts or nut related products into camp.

THE AUCTION IS A HUGE SUCCESS! During the past few weekends, MCM has held an auction with items that men donate to help MCM stay financially strong as well as providing scholarships to any man wishing to attend the weekend. Feel free to bring an item for the auction and the story behind it. We have had everything from CD collections to books to winter coats and even a working generator. It is a wonderful time, so bring a little extra cash to bid with.

WORKSHOPS: Saturday workshops are led by participants. Past workshops have included a wide variety of topics on men's issues, spirituality, sexuality, self-improvement, singing, dancing, drumming, making the perfect cup of espresso, etc. Consider developing one by yourself or co-facilitating a workshop with a friend. It is a rewarding experience to share a passion, an interest or an experience with other men at the weekend.

CONVERSATIONS: Do you just want to sound off about something or ask a question to which you don't have the answer? Want to brainstorm some topic with others? Claim one of the fireplaces for a conversation pit and put it out there.

Of course, you are always welcome to walk in the woods, hang out and just unwind if you prefer.

VARIETY SHOW: Everyone is invited to participate in Saturday night's variety show by telling a funny story, reading a poem, singing, improvising or performing. No talent required and no performance required either; just be a member of the audience to support, applaud and cheer those who choose to entertain.

CLOSING CIRCLE: Concluding the weekend on Sunday is a group picture (you can choose not to be in it) and a closing circle in which everyone has an opportunity to share something about his experience. Everything ends at 2 to 3 pm after camp clean-up. With many hands helping, we usually get out earlier.
